Terms and Conditions of the DHET-UCDP Grant

Should your application be successful and you accept the funding award, you agree to:

- Use funds strictly in line with UJ Finance and Travel Policies.
- Use funds according to the final approved budget.
- Accept responsibility for all relevant terms, conditions, policies, and procedures as stipulated.
- Check the status of your UCDP application online and follow up with the relevant approver to ensure timely submission to the Fund Administrator. Funding is allocated on a first-come, first-served basis once the application reaches the Fund Administrator, and system-generated emails should not be relied on solely due to possible technical glitches.
- Accept the award online following approval by the SIA Senior Director before funds are transferred and agree that failure to accept the award within 14 days will result in reallocation of funds to the central funding pool.
- Submit a progress report online by 15 January (or immediately upon completion of the funded activity, whichever is earlier), detailing expenditure, progress against outcomes, and supporting evidence.
- Acknowledge that you are solely responsible for submitting this progress report by the deadline. This obligation is unconditional and applies irrespective of whether you receive a system-generated notification. Failure to receive such notification does not excuse you from this responsibility.
- Inform UCP immediately by email to ucdp@uj.ac.za and submit a report online if funds are not used for any reason, indicating this for further guidance. Failure to use funds does not automatically authorise their use in the following year or for other unapproved activities.
- Acknowledge that the DHET reserves the right to request reimbursement of unused funds.
- Acknowledge that failure to submit any required report may affect future funding applications.
